Fellowship Research Project

To identify and capture global best practice relevant to operational training and education of law enforcement personnel in the area of human source management – Canada, Northern Ireland, UK, USA.

Fellowship Highlights

The agencies that I visited through my travels were;

Canada

- Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP)

United Kingdom

- Police Service of Northern Ireland (PSNI)
- Metropolitan Police Service
- National Policing Improvement Agency (NPIA)

United States of America

- Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI)
- Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA)
- Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE)
- New York City Police Department (NYPD)
- Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD)

The opportunity to participate as an observer in training with the RCMP in Canada was extremely valuable. I was able to observe the entire course in Vancouver allowing me the opportunity not only to see the entirety of the course but also to observe and discuss requirements prior, during and after the course.
