The Directors are not required to notify the nominee or give reasons if they decide not to accept a nomination for admission as a Life Member.

If any Member wilfully refuses or neglects to comply with the provisions of this Constitution, by-laws, policies or other standards prescribed by the Directors, or acts in a manner which in the opinion of the Directors is prejudicial to the interests of the Company, the Directors may by resolution censure, suspend or expel the Member from the Company, provided that the following procedure is observed:

The Directors may convene and arrange to hold a general meeting of the Company when they think fit and must do so if required to do so under the Corporations Act.
5.3 Members have power to convene general meeting
If there are not sufficient Directors for a quorum, a Director or any two or more Members may convene a general meeting of the Company at the cost of the Company.

5.4 Use of technology at general meetings
The Company may hold a meeting of Members at two or more venues using any technology that gives the Members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate.

5.5 Notice of general meeting
Notice of a general meeting must be given in accordance with clause 16 and the Corporations Act.

5.6 Calculation of period of notice
In computing the period of notice for a general meeting, both the day on which the notice is given or taken to be given and the day of the meeting convened by it are to be disregarded.

5.7 Directors entitled to notice of general meeting
A Director is entitled to receive notice of and to attend all general meetings of the Company and all separate meetings of any class of Members and is entitled to speak at those meetings.

5.8 Auditor entitled to notice of general meeting
To the extent required by the Corporations Act, an auditor of the Company is entitled to receive notice of, and to attend and speak at, all general meetings of the Company.

5.9 Cancellation or postponement of general meeting
Where a general meeting (including an annual general meeting) is convened by the Directors, they may by notice, whenever they think fit, cancel the meeting or postpone the holding of the meeting to a date and time determined by them or change the place for the meeting.

This clause does not apply to a meeting convened in accordance with the Corporations Act by a single Director, by Members, by the Directors on the request of Members, or to a meeting convened by a court.

5.10 Notice of cancellation, postponement or change of place of general meeting
Written notice of cancellation, postponement or change of place of a general meeting must specify the new date, time and place of the meeting and, if the meeting is to be held in two or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate the holding of the meeting in that manner. The notice must be given to all persons entitled to receive notices of general meetings from the Company. The notice must be given at least two business days before the date for which the meeting is convened and must specify the reason for the cancellation, postponement or change of place.
5.11 Number of clear days for postponement of general meeting

The number of clear days from the giving of a notice postponing the holding of a general meeting to the date specified in that notice for the holding of the postponed meeting must not be less than the number of clear days’ notice of the general meeting required to be given by this Constitution or the Corporations Act.

5.12 Business at postponed general meeting

The only business that may be transacted at a general meeting, the holding of which is postponed, is the business specified in the original notice convening the meeting.

5.13 Non-receipt of notice

The non-receipt of, or accidental omission to give, a notice of a general meeting or cancellation, postponement or change of details for a general meeting to a person entitled to receive notice does not invalidate any resolution passed at the general meeting or at a postponed meeting or the cancellation or postponement of a meeting.

5.14 Proxy, attorney or Representative at postponed general meeting

Where by the terms of an instrument appointing a proxy or attorney or of an appointment of a Representative:

(a) the appointed person is authorised to attend and vote at a general meeting or general meetings to be held on or before a specified date; and

(b) the date for holding the meeting is postponed to a date later than the date specified in the instrument of proxy, power of attorney or appointment of Representative, then that later date is substituted for and applies to the exclusion of the date specified in the instrument of proxy, power of attorney or appointment of Representative unless the Member appointing the proxy, attorney or Representative gives to the Company at its Registered Office notice in writing to the contrary not less than 48 hours before the time to which the holding of the meeting has been postponed.

6 Proceedings at general meetings

6.1 Number for a quorum

Subject to clause 6.4, seven Members present in person or by proxy, attorney or Representative are a quorum at a general meeting of the Company. In determining whether a quorum is present, each individual attending as a proxy, attorney or Representative is to be counted, except that:

(a) where a Member has appointed more than one proxy, attorney or Representative, only one is to be counted; and
(b) where an individual is attending both as a Member and as a proxy, attorney or Representative, that individual is to be counted only once.

6.2 Requirement for a quorum
An item of business may not be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to consider it. If a quorum is present at the time the first item of business is transacted, it is taken to be present when the meeting proceeds to consider each subsequent item of business unless the chair of the meeting (on the chair’s own motion or at the request of a Member, proxy, attorney or Representative who is present) declares otherwise.

6.3 If quorum not present
If within one hour after the time appointed for a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting:

(a) if convened by a Director, or at the request of Members, is dissolved; and

(b) in any other case, stands adjourned to the same day in the next week and the same time and place, or to such other day, time and place as the Directors appoint by notice to the Members and others entitled to notice of the meeting.

6.4 Adjourned meeting
At a meeting adjourned under clause 6.3(b), two persons each being a Member, proxy, attorney or Representative present at the meeting are a quorum. If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the adjourned meeting, the meeting is dissolved.

6.5 Appointment of chair of general meeting
If the Directors have elected one of their number as chair of their meetings, that person is entitled to preside as chair at a general meeting of the Company.

6.6 Absence of chair at general meeting
If a general meeting is held and:

(a) a chair has not been elected by the Directors; or

(b) the elected chair is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unable or unwilling to act, the following may preside as chair of the meeting (in order of precedence):

(c) the deputy chair (if any);

(d) a Director chosen by a majority of the Directors present;

(e) the only Director present; or
(f) a Member chosen by a majority of the Members present in person or by proxy, attorney or Representative.

6.7 Conduct of general meetings

The chair of a general meeting:

(a) has charge of the general conduct of the meeting and the procedures to be adopted at the meeting;

(b) may require the adoption of any procedure which is in the chair’s opinion necessary or desirable for proper and orderly debate or discussion and the proper and orderly casting or recording of votes at the general meeting; and

(c) may, having regard where necessary to the Corporations Act, terminate discussion or debate on any matter whenever the chair considers it necessary or desirable for the proper conduct of the meeting, and a decision by the chair under this clause is final.

6.8 Adjournment of general meeting

The chair of a general meeting may at any time during the meeting adjourn the meeting or any business, motion, question, resolution, debate or discussion being considered or remaining to be considered by the meeting either to a later time at the same meeting or to an adjourned meeting at any time and place, but:

(a) in exercising this discretion, the chair may, but need not, seek the approval of the Members present in person or by proxy, attorney or Representative; and

(b) only unfinished business is to be transacted at a meeting resumed after an adjournment.

Unless required by the chair, a vote may not be taken or demanded by the Members present in person or by proxy, attorney or Representative in respect of any adjournment.

6.9 Notice of adjourned meeting

It is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at any adjourned meeting unless a meeting is adjourned for one month or more. In that case, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given as in the case of an original meeting.

6.10 Questions decided by majority

Subject to the requirements of the Corporations Act, a resolution is taken to be carried if a simple majority of the votes cast on the resolution are in favour of it.
6.11 Equality of votes - casting vote for chair

If there is an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chair of the general meeting is entitled to a casting vote in addition to any votes to which the chair is entitled as a Member or proxy, attorney or Representative of a Member.

6.12 Voting on show of hands

At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is effectively demanded and the demand is not withdrawn. A declaration by the chair that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company, is conclusive evidence of the fact. Neither the chair nor the minutes need state and it is not necessary to prove the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

6.13 Demanding a poll

At a general meeting of the Company, a poll may be demanded by:

(a) at least three Members entitled to vote on the resolution; or

(b) Members with at least 10% of the votes that may be cast on the resolution on a poll; or

(c) the chair of the meeting.

6.14 Poll

If a poll is to be conducted in accordance with clause 6.13:

(a) it must be taken in the manner and at the date and time directed by the chair and the result of the poll is a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded;

(b) on the election of a chair or on a question of adjournment it must be taken immediately;

(c) the demand may be withdrawn; and

(d) the demand does not prevent the continuance of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded.

6.15 Entitlement to vote

Subject to the rights and any restrictions attached to any class of Members and to this Constitution:

(a) on a show of hands, each Member present in person and each other person present as proxy, attorney or Representative of a Member has one vote; and

(b) on a poll, each Member present in person has one vote and each person present as proxy, attorney or Representative of a Member has one vote for each Member that the person represents.

6.16 Validity of vote in certain circumstances

Unless the Company has received written notice of the matter before the start or resumption of the meeting at which a person votes as a proxy, attorney or Representative, a vote cast by that person is valid even if, before the person votes:

(a) the appointing Member dies;

(b) the appointing Member is mentally incapacitated; or

(c) the Member revokes the appointment or authority.

6.17 Objection to voting qualification

An objection to the right of a person to attend or vote at a general meeting or adjourned general meeting or to vote on a poll:

(a) may not be raised except at that meeting or adjourned meeting or when that poll is taken; and

(b) must be referred to the chair of the meeting, whose decision is final.

A vote not disallowed under the objection is valid for all purposes.

6.18 Chair to determine voting dispute

If there is a dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote, the chair of the general meeting must decide it and the chair’s decision made in good faith is final and conclusive.

6.19 Circulating resolutions of Members

Unless the Corporations Act requires otherwise, the Members may pass a resolution without a general meeting being held if all of the Members who are entitled to vote on the resolution sign a document containing a statement that they are in favour of the resolution set out in the document. Separate copies of a document may be used for signing by Members if the wording of the resolution and statement is identical in each copy. The resolution is taken to be passed (and if it is required to be a special resolution to be effective, passed as a special resolution), as if it had been passed unanimously at a duly convened general meeting, at the time the Secretary has evidence that the last Member has signed it.

6.20 Right to appoint attorney

A Member may by power of attorney appoint an attorney to act on the Member’s behalf at all or any meetings of the Company or of any class of Members.

To be effective, an instrument appointing an attorney under this clause, together with any evidence of non-revocation the Directors

Unless otherwise determined by a special resolution of Members, there will be:

(a) one National Chair;
(b) one Director from each of New South Wales, Queensland, South Australia, Tasmania, Victoria, Western Australia, the Australian Capital Territory and the Northern Territory; and
(c) four Directors possessing the particular skills, qualifications or commercial investment experience deemed necessary or desirable by the Directors from time to time, having regard to the objects and perpetual nature of the Company.

The Directors in office at the time of adoption of this Constitution continue in office subject to this Constitution.

7.2 Directors to retire
At each annual general meeting of the Company, the Directors in office at the date of the annual general meeting must retire from office.

7.3 Office held until conclusion of meeting
A retiring Director holds office until the conclusion of the meeting at which that Director retires but is eligible for re-election.

7.4 Directors elected at general meeting
At each annual general meeting, the Company may elect Directors, and those Directors so elected will hold office from the conclusion of that meeting until the office they hold is vacated in accordance with this Constitution.

7.5 Eligibility for election as Director
A person is eligible for election as a Director at an annual general meeting of the Company (Eligible Candidate) if they are:

(a) eligible for election under clause 7.8; or
(b) recommended by the Directors for election as:
   (i) the National Chair; or
(ii) one of the category of Directors described in clause 7.1(c); or

(c) in the case of the category of Directors described in clause 7.1(b), a person:

(i) ordinarily resident in the State or Territory for which they are nominated as a Director; and

(ii) who has submitted a written nomination at the Registered Office at least seven days before the general meeting which is signed by the nominee and a Member and seconded by another Member.

7.6 Order of election

Directors must be elected by separate elections held in the following order, unless otherwise determined by the Company in a general meeting by resolution prior to the elections:

(a) election of the National Chair;

(b) election of the Directors of the category described in clause 7.1(c); and

(c) election of the Directors of the category described in clause 7.6(b).

If a person is an Eligible Candidate for more than one of the categories of Directors described in clause 7.1, and that person is elected as a Director of one of those categories, they are no longer an Eligible Candidate in relation to the other category or categories.

7.7 Procedure for electing Directors

If the number of Eligible Candidates for positions of Directors in the categories described in clause 7.1 is equal to or less than the maximum number of vacancies determined in accordance with that clause, the election of each Eligible Candidate as a Director will be determined by a separate resolution of the Company at the annual general meeting.

If there are more Eligible Candidates than the maximum number of vacancies determined by reference to clause 7.1 for a position:

(a) as a Director in one of the categories described in clause 7.1(a) or 7.1(c); or

(b) as a Director from a particular State or Territory in the category described in clause 7.1(b),

the election of Directors at the annual general meeting to fill those positions is to be determined by a separate election for each such category or State or Territory using exhaustive preferential voting, such that:
(c) Members entitled to vote must indicate their order of preference (from first preference to last preference for any number of Eligible Candidates not exceeding the maximum number of vacancies) on a ballot paper listing the names of all Eligible Candidates in alphabetical order;

(d) the Eligible Candidate who receives the fewest first preference votes is excluded, and each ballot paper which gave a first preference vote to them is to be treated as giving a first preference vote to the Eligible Candidate next in order of the voters’ preference;

(e) the process of excluding the Eligible Candidate who has the fewest first preference votes (including votes to be treated as first preference votes according to clause 7.7(d)) and treating each ballot paper which gives (or is treated as giving) a first preference vote to the Eligible Candidate next in order of the voters’ preference and who has not been excluded, is to be repeated until the number of remaining Eligible Candidates is equal to the number of vacancies; and

(f) if two or more Eligible Candidates have an equal number of first preference votes (including votes treated as first preference votes according to clause 7.7(d)) and one or more of them must be excluded, the Eligible Candidate (or Eligible Candidates) to be excluded will be decided by drawing lots in any manner determined by the chair of the annual general meeting.

If an insufficient number of Eligible Candidates (having regard to the maximum number of vacancies determined in accordance with clause 7.1) are elected under this clause, the unfilled positions so created are casual vacancies and may be filled by the Directors under clause 7.8.

7.8 Casual vacancy

The Directors may at any time appoint any person to be a Director, to fill a casual vacancy.

A Director appointed under this clause holds office until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting of the Company but is eligible for election at that meeting.

(e) despite having an interest in a document, sign or participate in the execution of a document by or on behalf of the Company; and
